1 Introduction

Safety Adherence Technology is a temporary employment service organization based in Fundu Park, building no. 5 Nelson Mandela Street Secunda, Mpumalanga, which assists in rendering an interactive electronic safety service, in accordance with the Occupational Health and Safety Act no 85 of 1993 with reference to standby duties, to ensure the health and safety of personnel performing work in potential hazardous and dangerous areas. Video monitoring increases employee’s adherence to safety protocols & quality of care.

Although Safety Adherence Technology forms part of a bigger group of companies, only the business activities of Safety Adherence Technology are included in the scope.

This Promotion of Access to Information Manual (“Manual”) provides an outline of the type of records and the personal information it holds and explains how to submit requests for access to these records in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (“PAIA Act”). In addition, it explains how to access, or object to, personal information held by the Company, or request correction of the personal information, in terms of paragraphs 23 and 24 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (“POPI Act”).

The PAIA and POPI Acts give effect to everyone’s constitutional right of access to information held by private sector or public bodies, if the record or personal information is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. If a public body lodges a request, the public body must be acting in the public interest.

Requests shall be made in accordance with the prescribed procedures, at the rates provided. The forms and tariff are dealt with in section 5.

We will send our data subjects notifications or communications if we are obliged by law, or in terms of our contractual relationship with them.

We will only disclose personal information to government authorities if we are required to do so by law.

Our employees and our suppliers are required to adhere to data privacy and confidentiality principles.

4.4 Information security measures to protect personal information

Reasonable technical and organisational measures have been implemented for the protection of personal information processed by Safety adherence Technology and its operators. In terms of the POPI Act, operators are third parties that process personal information on behalf of Safety Adherence Technology.

We continuously implement and monitor technical and organisational security measures to protect the personal information we hold, against unauthorised access, as well as accidental or wilful manipulation, loss or destruction.

We will take steps to ensure that operators that process personal information on behalf of Safety Adherence Technology apply adequate safeguards as outlined above.

4.5 Trans-border flows of personal information

We will only transfer personal information across South African borders if the relevant business transactions or situation requires trans-border processing and will do so only in accordance with South African legislative requirements; or if the data subject consents to transfer of their personal information to third parties in foreign countries.

We will take steps to ensure that operators are bound by laws, binding corporate rules or binding agreements that provide an adequate level of protection and uphold principles for reasonable and lawful processing of personal information, in terms of the POPI Act.

We will take steps to ensure that operators that process personal information in jurisdictions outside of South Africa, apply adequate safeguards as outlined in Section 4.4.

4.6 Personal information received from third parties

When we receive personal information from a third party on behalf of a data subject, we require confirmation that they have written consent from the data subject that they are aware of the contents of this PAIA manual and the POPI Act Policy, and do not have any objection to our processing their information in accordance with this policy.
